BISHOP FAVORS INFANT BAPTISM

Urges Ministers to Show Importance of This to Parents.

ALSO DISCUSSES FINANCES

Report of Methodist Orphanage Presented—Memorial Service Held.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Kinston, N. C., November 23.—The session of the North Carolina Conference today was occupied largely with the report of the superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage, Rev. J. N. Cole, and the conference memorial service. The characters of the preachers in the Fayetteville, New Bern, Raleigh, Rockingham, Warrenton, Washington and Wilmington districts were passed, and they submitted their reports.

Comparatively few infant baptisms were reported by the preachers, and Bishop Hoss urged them to remember the importance of the duty to get the parents on their pastoral charges to have their children baptized. He also urged the preachers not to surrender entirely the financial work of the church to the laymen, saying that it is good thing for a preacher to look after this part of the work in connection with his care of the spiritual interests.

On motion, G. B. Webster was granted an honorable location, at his own request.

The report of the superintendent of the orphanage, which institution is located in Raleigh, showed that 142 orphan children are being cared for at this time, and that on account of lack of room more than that number have been turned out during the past year. The orphanage needs a new building and a hospital. Recently a laundry building has been erected, and is in operation. The farm, on which the boys work, largely decreases the cost of living. The endowment fund has reached $37,000, largely through bequests, and is steadily growing. This school at the orphanage consists of eight grades, which are correlated with the Raleigh city schools.

During the memorial service memorials were read of the four preachers who have died during the past year. Rev. J. E. Brinklow, Rev. M. M. McFarland, Rev. W. L. Cunningham and Rev. J. C. Reynolds. Verbal tributes were paid to their memories also by different members of the conference.

Bishop Hoss announced that at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow morning he would receive the class of young preachers who are eligible for full connection in the conference.

This evening the anniversary of the Board of Church Extension was held, and Rev. W. F. McArthur, of Louisville, secretary of the Board of Church Extension, delivered the address.

Rev. W. G. Bailes, of Portsmouth, Va., is attending the conference, representing the American Bible Society.

During the anniversary of the Board of Church Extension Bishop John C. Hogg arrived to attend the conference as a visitor, having been a member of the conference when he was elected to the episcopacy.

GRAVEN COUNTY FAIR CLOSES.

Flights by Aviator and Classy Horse Racing Feature of Event.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newbern, N. C., November 23.—The Graven county agricultural and stock exhibit and aviation meet came to a close this afternoon. J. C. Whitmer, the aviator who has been secured to give exhibitions with his aeroplanes during the event, gave three of the most successful flights ever seen in this city. Although he was in the air about half an hour, and traveled during that time about thirty miles, he closed his tour of the Graven county fair at all times and was cheered by the thousands who witnessed his flights.

The horse races, which lasted for more than an hour, were one of the chief features of the day. Some of the fastest animals in this section of the state were entered in the race, and their performance on the track was very creditable.

To-night at 9:30 o'clock the marshals' race will be held. This officially closed the Graven county fair, which has been one of its kind over held within the borders of Craven county.
